

CACFP NON-PRICING POLICY STATEMENT

Reston Children’s Center is a non-profit organization that operates a “non-pricing” program. This means that there is no separate charge for meal service, all participants receive meals at no extra cost regardless of their eligibility category, and meals may not be included as part of a center’s or home’s tuition expense. Current income eligibility documentation will be maintained for all participants claimed for free and reduced-price meals and meal counts will be taken at the point of service.

The same meals will be available at no separate charge to all participants at each CACFP facility without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity (including gender expression), sexual orientation, disability, age, marital status, family/parental status, income derived from a public assistance program, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior credible activity, in any program or activity conducted or funded by the USDA (not all bases apply to all programs).

Any complaints of discrimination should be submitted to USDA, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, DC 20250-9410 or call (202) 720-5964.

All meals served to enrolled participants will be reported on the claim for reimbursement in accordance with the method prescribed by this office. Assurance that there will be no overt identification of Tier 1 and Tier 2 children, and that the sponsoring organization will not make any free and reduced-price eligibility information concerning individual households available to day care homes and will otherwise limit the use of such information to persons directly connected with the administration and enforcement of the Program. The Center will receive free or reduced-price meals reimbursed based on the following income eligibility guidelines effective from July 1, 2024, to June 30, 2025. Meals will be provided at Reston Children’s Center. Champs Agreement # 10187. Please contact State Agency for any additional information. (Revised 8/24)
